Ex-Parisian Ill.

Father Thomas Major, pastor of the Catholic church in Frankfort, who has been in feeble health for several months, is at the point of death at his home in that city and his physicians have told his relatives that there is no chance for him. He has had charge of the church at Frankfort for seventeen years. He was one of General Morgan's boldest men during the Civil War, was wounded and nursed back to health by sisters of charity. Their care of him decided him to study for the priesthood. He had charge of the church at Winchester for several years. He was born in 1844 in Paris.

Clinton J. Barns Suicides.

News was received yesterday afternoon from Georgetown to the effect that Clinton J. Barns, of that city, had committed suicide at his home by shooting himself in the head. No other details of the tragedy were obtainable.

Mr. Barns came to Paris several years ago from Tazewell county, Va., locating in Paris where he took up the practice of law, which he continued for some time and later embarked in the real estate business.

About a year ago he moved to Georgetown where he engaged in the meat business being connected with Mr. James Baldwin, also formerly of Paris. No reason can be assigned for the suicide unless it was despondency over ill health.

Immediately upon receipt of the news Mrs. Clarence Ashurst and Miss Rose Kendrick, relatives of the deceased and Dr. Wm. Kenney left for Georgetown in an automobile.

Mr. Barns is survived by two sisters and one brother, all of whom reside in Virginia. His remains will be taken to Tazewell, Va., for burial.

Negro Found Dead Near Track.

Lying beside the railroad track the body of Ollie Resick, aged 22 years of this city, was found by the train crew of northbound passenger train Friday morning a few miles south of Carlisle. Resick left Paris Thursday night for Ewing, having returned that day from Parks Hill, where he had been acting in the capacity of waiter. The corner of Nicholas county was notified and the body taken to Carlisle. The coroner was unable to determine the cause of his death, whether he jumped from the train or was pushed off. There were two cuts on the head and one over the eye. The body was brought to Paris Friday afternoon.

Pulley Causes Small Fire.

A pulley, which slipped on a shaft and rubbing against a post caused a small fire at the grass seed cleaning plant of E. F. Spears & Sons on Third street yesterday morning. The fire department responded to a telephone alarm, but before they could get into action the fire had been extinguished. Employees at the plant, by timely action and use of a hand chemical extinguisher probably prevented an ugly blaze. The damage was slight.
